

United Coach Protocols

United considers our coaches to be important role models to our members and accordingly expects them to provide their services with fairness, respect, integrity, professionalism and in a manner consistent with the Swimming NZ code of conduct. Swimming NZ's code of conduct includes specific requirements and guidelines for coaches and teachers and can viewed at this link.

United supports these requirements and in addition has further specific requirements and protocols for our coaches - these are provided directly to the coaches.